AI4CROPHEALTH Project: Data collection in various locations

The team of researchers of the project, during this period, have successfully gone to collect data in various areas of the project. This project includes four regions namely Coast, Morogoro, Mbeya, and Songwe. They managed to collect data through Drone and Still Camera in the crops of Maize, Beans, Cassava and Rice. This project will help farmers bring productivity and food security.

The photo above is Project Researchers, Agriculture Officer, and a rice farmer in Mbeya region March 5,2024

Dakawa1

Dakawa 2

Dakawa3

picture showing researchers carrying tools for data collection at Dakawa filed area March 1,2024

Dakawa 4

Researcher and extension officer, discussion during a research at Dakawa

Group photo of project researchers, agricultural foundation and Songwe bean farmers, Mbozi Mission
March 26, 2024

The photo on the right is the researchers of the project, from left is Dr. F. Ishengoma, the second is Dr. M. Mahenge and the third is the agricultural officer of Mabwerebwere Kilosa. Looking at a maize cultivation farm field that has been attacked by disease and is ready for research. The second photo left is a researcher who is also a student sponsored by the project, Mr. Kifyoga taking pictures of crops attacked by various diseases. December 30, 2023 at Mabwerebwere Kilosa.

This picture above shows researchers and farmers looking at the rice field of Chanzuu Kilosa December 30, 2023.

photo: A team of Researchers, Extension officer and farmer,the farmer wearing a hat on the right hand, showing a rice plant that is attacked by an insert should be known Tryporyza incertulas, The Yellow Stem borer . Right picture: the picture on the right shows the extension officer showing that insert.

Group photo of researchers, Extension officer and Farmers at field area at Mabwerembwere Kilosa December 30, 2023